CROSSOVER EXCELLENCE

On board the wallywhy100, The exterior design and naval architecture bearing the signature of the Wally-Ferretti Group Engineering team meets the interiors penned by Studio A. Vallicelli & C. resulting in the perfect crossover product combining the wallywhy volume we know and love with the qualities of a coupé boat in the sub-70ft range.

RELENTLESS PERFECTION

With this boat the market finds the answer to the age- old question: should one compromise design over comfort, speed over livability– in other words: can't a boat have it all?

Yes, it can. At least, it can on the wallywhy100 where all the Wally know-how and expertise has been harnessed to create a product that dares to be different and uncompromising, offering a compelling value proposition and catering to a wide demographic that just won't settle for anything less than all.

FUNCTIONAL ELEGANCE

Eye-catching, sleek, aggressive lines – all in the service of functionality – run along the entire boat connecting the inside and the outside, Creating a unique environment.

The wallywhy100, aka “jack of all trades” to board for a day or two or for a longer vacation thanks to its ample cabins, generous crew quarter, relaxation areas, garage and toy storage capacity. A boat for sailors who know what they want and that wallywhy100 can give it to them.

CAPTAIN

Timothy Molinero
French-Italian

---

With a deep-rooted passion for the sea and years of hands-on experience navigating the Mediterranean, Captain Timothy Molinero brings professionalism, precision, and a calm leadership style to Moonraker. A French-Italian national fluent in English, French, and Italian, Captain Timothy is known for his smooth handling of vessels and personable approach with guests.

He has captained both private and charter yachts across the French Riviera, Corsica, Sardinia, and the Italian coast—including vessels such as MY Saga One (88ft), UTOPIA (Pardo 43), and Kapusha (88ft). He also played a key role in new builds, including supervising launch phases and ensuring full compliance for commercial operation.

Currently finalizing his Master 500 GT certification, Timothy already holds a Master 200 GT license, GMDSS GOC, and other advanced maritime qualifications. Guests can expect a secure, well-run yacht experience enhanced by his warm demeanor, attention to detail, and deep respect for the sea.
