SYMMETRY is a 67m Benetti created for a more considered way of living at sea.

As the only B.Now 67 available for charter, she offers something rare: not simply scale or presence, but a distinct atmosphere. Life on board feels quiet, balanced and beautifully resolved. There is a sense of clarity to her spaces, of light moving softly across water, glass and pale surfaces, and of each part of the yacht existing in harmony with the next.

With hybrid propulsion reducing noise and vibration, SYMMETRY brings a gentler rhythm to charter. Time at anchor feels calmer, evenings feel softer, and the experience of being on the water becomes more immersive, more comfortable, and more still.

EXTERIOR LIVING

On board SYMMETRY, life is drawn outward.

Her exterior spaces unfold with an easy sense of flow, moving between water, light, shade and open sky. RWD's exterior design gives her a clean, contemporary profile, while the arrangement of the decks creates a natural rhythm to the day: swimming, sunbathing, long lunches, quiet corners, slow aperitifs, and the simple pleasure of watching light shift across the sea.

At the centre of it all is Benetti's signature Oasis Deck. With its infinity pool, fold-out side terraces and open connection to the water, it becomes the emotional heart of the yacht. It is a space defined by openness and reflection, where the sea feels close enough to shape the entire atmosphere on board.

THE INTERIOR EXPERIENCE

Inside, SYMMETRY's interior by Reymond Langton Design feels luminous and quietly expressive. A notable Italian new-build collaboration for the studio, the design brings a softness and delicacy that feels almost residential in spirit. The main deck saloon sets the tone, with pale taupe fabrics, pearlised lacquer, warm silver leaf, light figured tanganka, ebonised walnut and bronze metal detailing all working together in subtle balance.

There is a reflective quality to the interior that feels central to SYMMETRY's identity. Oak flooring with bronze metal inlay gives the space structure and movement, while silk and wool carpets, acoustic fabrics and soft upholstery create a sense of quiet depth. In the main deck saloon, a crystal chandelier sits above the central dining and lounge arrangement, catching and scattering the light with a delicate, almost weightless effect.

ACCOMMODATION

SYMMETRY accommodates up to 12 guests for charter, with a highly adaptable layout designed around the needs of each group.

The family deck features a substantial Owner's suite with private office, his and hers bathrooms, his and hers dressing areas and access to a private terrace. On the main deck, guest accommodation includes three double cabins, two modular twin/double cabins, and a flexible forward arrangement.

The full-beam main deck VIP suite comprises a bedroom to port and a private lounge to starboard, creating a generous retreat for guests. If preferred, the space can be closed off with pocket doors to create two smaller ensuite cabins. The sofa conveniently converts into a double bed offering additional flexibility for use as a child or staff cabin.

This gives SYMMETRY rare versatility for charter, allowing guests to prioritise privacy, separation, children's accommodation, staff use or additional lounge space, while remaining within her 12-guest charter capacity.

HEALTH & WELLNESS

Wellness on board SYMMETRY feels naturally woven into the day. On the lower deck, the beach club connects directly to a dedicated gym and spa area, creating a wellness space that sits close to the water and feels fully part of life on board rather than separate from it. Guests can move between the gym, the sea and the spa with complete ease, allowing the day to unfold at its own pace.

The gym is fully equipped with Technogym cardio equipment, strength equipment, free weights, yoga mats and supporting accessories, while the spa area includes a sauna and steam room.

There is something particularly appealing about the rhythm this creates: movement, water, heat, rest. Combined with the stillness of hybrid operation and the softness of the yacht's wider atmosphere, the wellness experience feels restorative in an understated, deeply liveable way.

TOYS & TENDERS

Water is central to the experience on board SYMMETRY. Her inventory includes an 8.5m ANTE custom limousine tender, a Williams 560 jet tender, two Sea-Doo Spark Trixx jet skis, two SEABOB F9s, two Fliteboards, an Awake Ravik Explore powered surfboard, inflatable paddleboards and kayaks, as well as waterskis, wakeboards, towables and a full range of guest wetsuits and safety equipment.

With two tenders, RYA water sports centre approval and a broad toy inventory, the yacht offers a seamless connection to the sea, whether the mood is high-energy and playful or slow and exploratory. Some guests may want speed and movement, others a quiet paddle or a swim directly from the beach club. SYMMETRY allows for both.

CREW & SERVICE

A crew of 17 supports the experience on board, bringing the attentiveness and discretion expected of a yacht of this calibre.

Several crew members have joined from the Owner's other successful charter yacht, bringing valuable continuity and an already established understanding of high-level charter service. That experience is felt not in anything theatrical, but in the ease of life on board: the smoothness, the timing, the sense that everything has been quietly anticipated.

CLOSING

SYMMETRY offers a way of living on the water that feels polished, graceful and deeply atmospheric.

She is not defined by excess, but by balance. By the way light moves across her spaces. By the calm of hybrid operation. By the reflective quality of her interior, the openness of the Oasis Deck, the softness of her materials and the ease with which each day unfolds.

As the only B.Now 67 available for charter, SYMMETRY offers something genuinely distinctive: an experience that feels luminous, immersive and quietly dramatic, where life at sea has been distilled into a more elegant and poetic form.
