FEEDBACK

"We have been back in Switzerland for more than a month but we still live on all the nice moments we shared on the boat.

The crew was extremely helpful and willing to please all our wishes. The captain understood perfectly well our way of living and adapted the cruise to comply with it. And that was probably the most important!

The cook made his best and we were always looking forward to sitting down for the meals!

Finally the outlay and equipment of the boat allowed everyone to enjoy a restful but still active time. Bravo! Excellent service!"
