Whisper's interior is a masterpiece of design, with the ability to cater to both grand-scale entertaining and intimate charter parties. The main guest spaces are located on the main and upper decks; on the main deck, a cinema room adjacent to the guest cabins, that can double as a guest salon or reading room, and the opulent double-height main salon, which is connected to the upper deck lounge and dining room via an impressive atrium staircase, flanked by two video walls, setting the stage for large events.

SOCIABLE ON ANY SCALE

The sports bar can transform to a night club by night. While Whisper can – and has – hosted the largest parties, the beauty of her Reymond Langton design is its ability to create an atmosphere of warmth and intimacy. Soft, soothing lighting bathes the interiors, enhancing the sense of cosiness, while precious materials and delicate touches provide luxury at every turn.
